He sleeps in Jesus arms

A dark grey granite gravestone for George Stanley Sutton. The stone is rectangular with a curved top and is mounted on a two-tiered base. The top tier is smaller than the bottom tier. The inscription is carved into the front face of the stone. At the very top, there is a decorative archway containing the name 'STEELE' flanked by leafy branches. Below this, the name 'GEORGE STANLEY' is carved in large, bold letters, followed by 'SUTTON' in slightly smaller letters. The dates 'MAY 1, 1907' and 'JULY 30, 1943' are carved below the name. At the bottom of the inscription, the phrase 'COME BUT NOT FORGOTTEN' is carved in a smaller, all-caps font. The stone is set in a grassy area with some yellow wildflowers and green plants in the background.
